

NBA Needs Its Members to Attend Meetings

The Nokesville Business Association exists to help promote Nokesville's businesses but it can't carry out that mission without you.

Your attendance at the monthly General meetings can be vital to your visibility and to the community. Membership meetings provide opportunities to network among members, become cognizant of issues that may affect your business, get to know the community, bring fresh ideas and so much more.

Suggestions for making the most of your NBA membership are on Page 4. All members are encouraged to attend NBA meetings, including Board meetings. For your convenience, we've scheduled both meetings for the third Tuesday of the month: 5:00 for the Board meeting, 7:00 for the General meeting. Looking forward to seeing you there.

WANTED: SPOTLIGHT ARTICLES

If you are an NBA member and would like your business featured in an upcoming issue, please contact Gail Williams, Newsletter editor, to arrange an interview.

Friends of Nokesville Needs Volunteers

The new organization formed to help NBA carry out some of its goals needs volunteers with imagination, talent, and willingness to help in a variety of ways. Still in its early stages, the Friends of Nokesville (just renamed Friends Uniting Nokesville [FUN]) will be setting goals, gathering ideas for fundraising and grants, and spearheading projects and programs that benefit the community. It's an exciting time to get involved. Contact Dona Swanson at dswanson@pwcgov.org for more information.

NBA Mission Statement

THE MISSION of the Nokesville Business Association is to encourage the establishment, growth and promotion of businesses within the Nokesville area.

We improve and strengthen the business climate by active communication among our membership and with citizens and other groups that desire to make Nokesville a better place to live and work. We aim to revitalize our community and maintain the rural character of Nokesville.
